

Tendercapital Bond Two Steps Fund

THE FUND IN A NUTSHELL – MAY 2021

Key Features

Fixed income fund, euro denominated, which invests in Corporate and Sovereign Debt after an accurate and fundamental analysis of the Issuer and an active management based on internal research models.
The results achieved are not linked to reference benchmarks.

Investment Policy

Bottom-down approach based on an internal analysis of the macroeconomic context, the definition of movements expectations of the rates curves and subsequent definition of investment strategies.

The instrument selection is based on a quali-quantitative approach.

The choice of the securities through fundamental analysis follows the definition of the investible universe based on internal quantitative models.

The main guidelines for the investment are:

- ✓ High yield instruments or without rating (max 30% of AUM)
- ✓ Exposition towards equity instruments or convertible bonds (max 10% of AUM)
- ✓ Derivatives admitted only for portfolio hedging purposes

TARGET

The fund is dedicated to investors who look for a balanced diversification of the portfolio in the current macroeconomic scenario, where interest rates are negative and inflation is low. The Fund seeks to produce positive returns in the medium term with low/medium volatility, through a reduced exposition to rate risk.

STRENGTHS

- The strategies' dynamism allows a timely adaptation of the portfolio allocation in view of changes in the macro-economic and monetary policy context.
- Low portfolio volatility through a broad diversification of strategies and short duration.
